Matt Johnston named Brand Manager

MENDOTA HEIGHTS, MN—Matt Johnston was today named Manna Distribution Services brand manager. A five-year employee of the Minnesota-based company, Johnston took over the position from Jill Peddycoart who moves to National Operations Director for the brand's parent company, Manna Freight Systems, Inc.

Johnston, a Kansas City native, previously worked as a manager in distribution services with Manna, and has management level warehousing and transportation experience with other organizations. He will oversee all of Manna's home delivery functions.

Manna Distribution Services is the leading provider of high speed, white glove home deliveries in the US. Manna focuses on the delivery of large scale consumer products for the home, such as flat panel TVs, furniture, mattresses, major kitchen appliances, and home gyms. The company is based in the Minneapolis/St. Paul metro and was founded in 1991.
